1. Hybrid mode.

2. The inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (hereinafter referred to as 'Cr.P.C.') / 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as the 'BNSS') has been invoked by way of the present petition seeking quashing of FIR No. 624/2020 dated 19.11.2020, registered at Police Station Jahangirpuri, Delhi, for offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereinafter referred to as the 'IPC').

3. Issue notice.

4. Notice is accepted by learned APP for the State and the learned counsel for Respondent no. 2, who are appearing on advance notice.

5. At the outset, it has been submitted by the Learned Counsel for the Petitioners that the marriage between Petitioner No.1 and Respondent No.2 was solemnized on 07.05.2019, as per Hindu rites and customs. However, due to matrimonial discord arising out of temperamental differences, the parties have started living separately since 03.02.2020.

6. It has been submitted that pursuant to a complaint lodged by Respondent No.2, before the CAW Cell, FIR No. 624/2020 was registered under sections 498-A/406/34 IPC and the chargesheet was also filed under Sections 498-A/406/34 IPC by the Investigating Agency.

7. It is further stated that ex-parte decree of divorce dated 08.05.2019 was passed by the learned Principal Judge, Family Courts, Saharanpur, U.P. in cased titled Vikas Kumar vs. Geeta @ Jyoti. The parties, after the extensive intervention of their friends and family members, have agreed to resolve their mutual differences as per the settlement dated 30.05.2024, executed before learned Judge Family Court, North District, Rohini, Delhi.

8. Respondent no. 2 stood by the settlement and stated that she has received a Demand Draft (DD) of Rs. 3,00,000/- today in the Court, whereas she has already received an amount of Rs. 3,00,000/- earlier, out of the total settlement amount of Rs. 6,00,000/- and that she has no objection to the instant petition, if it allowed.

9. Both parties are physically present before the court and they have been duly identified by SI Amita, present in Court and their respective counsels.

10. Respondent No.2 confirms that the dispute with the Petitioners has been amicably settled without any fear, force or coercion and that she has no objection if the FIR in question, is quashed.

11. In view of the settlement arrived at between the parties, continuing with criminal proceedings, would be a futile exercise overburdening the already overburdened criminal justice system, especially, when the dispute appears to be and is private in nature and does not involve any public interest.

12. Accordingly, in light of the submissions made by Respondent No.2 that she has no objection if the present proceedings are quashed and in light of the Settlement deed dated 30.05.2024, while exercising the inherent powers vested in this court under Section 528 BNSS, it is deemed appropriate to quash the FIR in question.

13. Consequently, to secure the ends of justice and to bring about an end to the dispute between the parties qua the present case in hand, FIR No. 624/2020 dated 19.11.2020, registered at Police Station Jahangirpuri, Delhi, under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC along with consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, is hereby, quashed.

14. Petition is allowed and disposed of accordingly. Pending application(s), if any, also disposed of.
