CRL.M.A. 33550/2026 (exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.

CRL.M.C. 8030/2026

2. The present petition has been filed seeking quashing of FIR No.206/2019 dated 27th July, 2019 under Sections 506/509 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 ('IPC') and Section 67 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 ('IT Act') registered at Police Station Geeta Colony and the consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, on the ground of settlement.

3. Issue notice.

4. Notice is accepted by APP appearing on behalf of the State and by the respondent no.2 who appears in person.

5. The petitioner and the respondent no.2/complainant were school friends. Disputes arose between the parties which resulted in filing of the present FIR.

6. It is the case of the petitioner that the parties have settled all their disputes and differences in terms of the Settlement Deed dated 18th November, 2025 arrived at between the parties, which has been placed on record as Annexure A-5 to the present petition.

7. The petitioner is present in Court and has been identified by his counsel and the Investigating Officer ('IO').

8. The respondent no.2/complainant is present in Court and has been identified by the IO. She informs the Court that she has settled the matter out of her own free will and without any coercion. She further states that she does not wish to pursue the present FIR any further and has no objection if the present petition is allowed.

9. Considering the above settlement between the parties, there is no use continuing with the proceedings under the present FIR as it would be a misuse of the process of the Court and an unnecessary burden on the State exchequer. Hence, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the aforementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

10. Even though the matter has been settled, the FIR was lodged in the year 2019 and the parties have settled the matter after 7 years. The petitioner, on account of his acts and omissions has wasted considerable time of the police and the courts in the present matter. In these circumstances, the petitioner would be liable to pay costs, which would be utilized for socially beneficial causes.

11. Accordingly, the present proceedings under FIR No. No. 206/2019 registered at Police Station Geeta Colony and the consequential proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed subject to the petitioner paying costs of Rs.15,000/- to the "Indigent & Disabled Lawyers Fund" of Bar Council of Delhi, within two (2) weeks from today.

12. The necessary compliance report shall be filed with the Registry within four (4) weeks from today

13. The petition, along with all pending applications, stands disposed of.
