the interest of justice and fair play."

2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Petitioner submits that the learned Trial Court has failed to proceed with the matter and, on this premise, seeks the intervention of this Court by way of the present Petition.

3. This Court takes note of the fact that both parties have been appearing before the learned Trial Court on various dates of hearing and have been participating in the proceedings.

4. This Court notes that the various procedural aspects arising in the proceedings have been duly considered by the learned Trial Court on different dates of hearing. Prima facie, it is further observed that the grounds taken in the review also appear to be at variance with what was originally recorded in the Order of which the review itself came to be sought.

5. Having regard to the manner in which the proceedings have progressed before the learned Trial Court, prima facie, this Court finds no sufficient ground warranting interference in exercise of its supervisory jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

6. Nevertheless, the Petitioner is at liberty to file appropriate Application(s) before the concerned Trial Court for expeditious disposal and which Application may be considered by the learned Trial Court uninfluenced by the observation made hereinabove and on its merits in accordance with law.

7. Accordingly, the present Petition, along with pending application(s), if any, stands dismissed in the above terms.
