ORDER

1. By way of the present petition, the petitioner seeks quashing of FIR bearing no. 231/2017, dated 27.05.2017, registered at Police Station Shakarpur, Delhi, for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 363 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC').
2. The petitioner and respondent nos. 2 and 3 are present before this Court in person and have been identified by their counsels and concerned Investigating Officer (IO) from Police Station Shakarpur, Delhi.
3. Briefly stated, facts of the present case are that the present FIR was registered against the petitioner on the complaint of respondent no. 2 on 27.05.2017. However, it is stated that petitioner and respondent no. 3 got married on 06.06.2017 and are living together since 2017. It is stated that both the parties have amicably settled the present matter vide Compromise

Deed dated 18.09.2024, entered between them.

4. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 who has been identified by the concerned IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no. 2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. Respondent no. 2 further states that she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

5. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will, without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

6. Accordingly, FIR bearing no. 231/2017, dated 27.05.2017, registered at Police Station Shakarpur, Delhi, for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 363 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

7. In view of the above, the present petition stands disposed of. Pending application, if any, also stands disposed of.

8. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
