File taken up today on account of 03.03.2026 being declared holiday.

1. The accused/applicant seeks bail in case FIR No. 411/2024 of PS Mukherji Nagar for offence under Section 420/406/467/468/471/120B IPC.
2. Learned counsel for accused/applicant seeks adjournment on the ground that arguing counsel is not available and parties are trying to settle the disputes. Keeping in mind the extreme old pendency of this bail application, which formed part of 179 such old applications transferred from different benches to this bench, there is no scope for any adjournment. On this, learned counsel for accused/applicant seeks a passover to ask the arguing counsel to appear through videoconferencing.
3. As requested, be awaited.

4. In this second call, learned counsel for accused/applicant has appeared with instructions from the accused/applicant and seeks permission to withdraw this anticipatory bail application with liberty to file afresh before the trial court since according to him, there is change in circumstances.

5. As requested, the anticipatory bail application and pending application are dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as sought.
