CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ JAIN

ORDER
20.02.2026

1. The petitioner seeks regular bail in a case of gang-rape.
2. He submits that the concerned prosecutrix, her mother and her maternal uncle have already been examined and, thus, there is no chance of petitioner trying to threaten or influence them.
3. Learned APP for the State submits that there are 24 witnesses which were cited and few witnesses have been dropped and, presently, there are only three witnesses, who are left to be examined.
4. Learned Counsel for the petitioners submits that, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, he does not press the present application and prays that learned Trial Court be requested to expedite the trial.
5. Learned APP for the State also has no objection in this regard and she submits that there would not be any inaction or delay on their part to examine the remaining witnesses.

6. The present application stands disposed of as not pressed.
7. All the rights and contentions of the petitioner are reserved.
8. The learned Trial Court is requested to dispose of the matter as expeditiously as possible.
