%

1. Since the goods in favour of the petitioner are informed to be provisionally released, learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, has not pressed the petition.
2. The petition, accordingly, stands disposed of.

3. In case if the order passed is adverse to the interest of petitioner, the petitioner is at liberty to take recourse to such remedy as is permissible and available in accordance with law.

4. In regard to the prayer for impleadment moved through application bearing CM APPL.7697 of 2026, we deem it appropriate to observe that it shall be open for the applicant in the said application to question the order of provisional release in favour of original petitioner in accordance with law.
