1. The parties have filed joint applications under Order XXIII Rule 3 of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 to record the settlement which has arrived at between them.

2. Order XXIII, Rule 3 authorises the Court to pass a decree on a compromise wherein the parties to the dispute have made an arrangement to settle the dispute. It has been comprehensively stated in the provision that the settlement arrived at should meet the essentials laid down therein, namely, (i) the compromise is lawful (ii) it is reduced in writing (iii) it is duly signed by the parties arriving at the compromise.

3. The settlement has been agreed upon without fear or coercion and the parties appear to have entered into the settlement agreement on their own volition.

4. The Court is satisfied that the settlement has been arrived at between the parties following due procedure and meeting the essentials specified Order XXIII, Rule 3. Therefore, the parties shall be bound by the aforesaid settlement agreement.

5. The rectification petitions stand disposed of in terms of the settlement.

6. The civil suit stands decreed in terms of the settlement agreement.

7. The Registry is directed to draw-up a decree sheet.

8. The civil suit stands disposed of.
