ORDER

% 16.01.2026

1. The applicant/accused seeks grant of regular bail in case arising out of FIR No. 520/2024 dated 01.11.2024, registered at Anand Parbat, Delhi for commission of offences under Sections 109(1)/191(1)(2)(3)/118(2)/238/3(5) of BNS, 2023 (Corresponding Sections 307/ 146/147/148/326/201/34 IPC) & 25/27/54/59 of Arms Act, 1959.
2. There are four accused persons in all, who are facing trial for attempted murder.
3. The case is already at the stage of recording of prosecution evidence.
4. The bail is, primarily, being sought on parity as other co-accused are on bail. It is submitted that one of the co-accused Pritam @ Jony, who has been labeled as principal offender and who has allegedly given stab injuries to the complainant with knife, has already been enlarged on bail by the learned Court of Sessions on 29.03.2025.
5. It is submitted that the applicant Jitender @ Jeetu was arrested on 10.11.2024 and is in custody since then.

BAIL APPLN. 4658/2025

1

6. Learned APP for the State refutes the prayer made in bail application and contends that the applicant/accused is having previous involvement and if enlarged on bail, there is apprehension that he would indulge in similar kind of activities. In this regard, reference has been made to the details appearing in the Nominal Roll of the applicant.

7. Learned counsel for applicant does admit that there are previous involvements. He, however, submits that in all such pending cases, the applicant is already on bail. He also submits that he would abide by any condition, to be imposed in this regard upon him.

8. Keeping in mind the overall facts and circumstances of the case and appreciating the fact that all his co-accused are already on regular bail, the applicant is admitted to bail on his furnishing personal bond in a sum of Rs. 25,000/- with one surety of the like amount subject to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Judicial Magistrate First Class, with the condition that he would not come in contact of any prosecution witnesses, directly or indirectly and would furnish his present and permanent address with supporting documents with undertaking to inform about change, if any, well in advance. He would also not leave the country without prior permission of the learned Trial Court.

9. The application stands disposed of in aforesaid terms.

10. A copy of this Order be immediately sent to the learned Trial Court and Jail Superintendent for information and necessary compliance.
