HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GANESH RAM MEENA

Order

29/10/2026

1. All the above three contempt petitions have been filed by the petitioners alleging non-compliance of the common order dated 30.10.2025 passed by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court.

2. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the interest @ 9 % p.a. has not been paid by the respondents as directed by the Court.

3. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the respondents have preferred an appeal before the Division Bench, which is still pending for adjudication.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in the similar matters the appeals preferred by the respondents before the Division Bench, have already been dismissed. Against the order of the Division Bench in those cases, they have preferred special leave petition before the Hon'ble Apex Court which also came to be dismissed and further a review petition preferred by them before the Hon'ble Apex Court was also dismissed.

5. Taking into consideration the aforesaid facts and so also the fact that appeal before the Division Bench against the order, which is subject matter of the present contempt petitions is still pending before the Division Bench, the Court deems it just and proper to direct the respondents to make payment @ 9% p.a. as directed by the Court to the petitioner within a period of 30 days from today by way of Demand Draft and the said payments would remain subject to outcome of the D.B. special appeal petition preferred by the respondents.

6. In case, the respondents succeed in the appeal, the petitioner shall refund the amount to the respondents as per the order of Division Bench, if any.

7. Hence, the present contempt petitions are disposed of as above.

8. Contempt notices stand discharged.

9. Pending application, if any, also stands disposed of.

10. In case, the respondents fail to pay the amount as observed above, the petitioner would be at liberty to make application for revival of these contempt petition.
