Co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 03.09.2026. Other co-accused Sonu also got benefit of bail by Co-Ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 22.09.2026. The case of the present petitioner is on better footing. Petitioner is behind the bars since 04.09.2026 though six cases out of which five are of different nature have been reported against him, however, in all cases, he is already on bail. The investigation/trial of the case will take considerable time, therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in further custody and on the ground of parity with co-accused, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Hemant Alias Hemraj S/o Satyanarayan, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
