Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Cases, Bundi whereby, the anticipatory bail application preferred under Section 482 B.N.S.S. on behalf of the appellants was rejected.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the appellants submits that the appellants are innocent and they have falsely been implicated in this case. Counsel submits that during the course of investigation, dispute has been resolved between the parties and they have entered into a compromise. In such circumstances, learned counsel submits that no useful purpose would be served by arresting the appellants. Hence, this criminal appeal may be allowed.

3. Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor opposes the submissions advanced on behalf of appellants.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the complainant does not dispute the factum of compromise. He submits that complainant has no objection if appellants are granted benefit of anticipatory bail.

5. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

6. Having regard to the totality of the facts and circumstances and considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties, especially considering the fact that the parties have resolved their dispute amicably and have entered into a compromise, but without expressing any opinion on the merits/demerits of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to allow the appeal filed by the accused/appellants under Section 14-

A(2) of the SC/ST Act and the appellants deserve indulgence of pre-arrest bail.

7. Consequently, the instant Criminal Appeal is allowed. The impugned order dated 19.09.2026 passed by the learned Special Judge, Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Cases, Bundi in Criminal Misc.
