2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that as per the contents of the FIR, the petitioner is alleged to have entered the house of the complainant by a ‘swift’ car and demanded Rs.10 lakhs, except that there is no other allegation of any kind. He further argued that the petitioner has also lodged a cross case against the complainant. He again submits that the petitioner is behind the bars since 12.09.2026 with five criminal antecedents. The investigation/trial of the case will take considerable time, therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in further custody and the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Umesh Barkesiya S/o Bagwana Ram, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
