Order

29/10/2026

1. The instant criminal miscellaneous third bail application has been filed by the petitioner Niril Kumar S/o G.H. Sinhani, aged about 52 years, under Section 483 B.N.S.S., 2023, who was arrested by the ACB in connection with the FIR No.245/2024 dated 30.10.2024 registered at Police Station Pradhan Arakshi Kendra, Anti Corruption Bureau, District Jaipur for the offences punishable under Sections 7(c), 9, 10, 12, 13(1)(a) read with Section 13(2), 12 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (as amended in 2018) and under Sections 409, 466, 467, 468, 471, 477-A & 120-B of IPC, 1860.

2. Learned counsel submits that the first bail application was dismissed by this Court vide order dated 01.06.2026 and second bail application by order dated 23.09.2026 and thereafter, the petitioner has preferred this third bail application.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the co-accused persons whose bail was dismissed by this Court, approached the Hon'ble Apex Court and by orders dated 29.09.2026 and 16.10.2026, their SLP (Crl.) bearing Nos. 15347/2026, 13461/2026, 15862/2026 and 15822/2026 were allowed and enlarged on bail. Learned counsel while seeking the benefit of parity with the co-accused persons, submits that his case is not distinguishable from that of the co-accused persons who have already been enlarged on bail by the Hon'ble Apex Court. He further submits that the police, after completing the investigation, has filed the charge-sheet against him and no recovery is required to be effected from him. In view of the above, learned counsel prays that the accused-petitioner may be enlarged on bail, as the trial of the case will take a sufficiently long time to conclude.

4. Per contra, learned GA-cum-AAG, Mr. Rajesh Choudhary, strongly opposes the bail application; however, could not dispute the fact that in the aforementioned SLPs the co-accused persons have been enlarged on bail by the Hon'ble Apex Court and case of the petitioner herein is not distinguishable from co-accused persons.

5. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

6. This Court, after considering the nature of allegations, noted that the Police after completing the investigation has filed the charge-sheet and no recovery is required to be made, petitioner has no criminal antecedents; and co-accused persons, as noted above, have been enlarged on bail, the trial will take sufficiently long time to conclude, therefore, without commenting upon merits/demerits of the case, is inclined to exercise its power under Section 483 B.N.S.S. and deems it just and proper to enlarge the accused-petitioner on bail.

7. Accordingly, the third bail application filed under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that accused-petitioner Nirnil Kumar S/o Shri G.H. Sinhani, shall be released on bail, provided he executes a personal bond in a sum of ₹1,00,000/- with two sound and solvent sureties of ₹50,000/- each to the satisfaction of learned trial Court for his appearance before that Court on each and every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till the completion of the trial.
