JUSTICE ANOOP KUMAR DHAND

Order

26/10/2026

1. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner participated in the recruitment process for appointment on the post of Assistant Professor under the category of EWS-General. The cutoff marks for the said category is 94.35. Counsel submits that as per the petitioner’s calculation after matching her attempted answers with the answer key, her marks are above the cut-off for the aforesaid category, but in spite of the above, correct marks have not been awarded to the petitioner and she has been deprived from participating in the further selection process. Counsel submits that before approaching this Court, the petitioner approached the office of Rajasthan Public service Commission by way of filing representation for redressal of her grievances, but no heed has been paid to the said representation. Hence, under these circumstances, the petitioner has approached this Court by way of filing the instant writ petition.

2. Heard and considered the submissions made at the Bar and perused the material available on the record.

3. Instead of entering into the merits of the case, but looking to the fact that the petitioner has already submitted a comprehensive representation before the Rajasthan Public Service Commission on 16.09.2026 for redressal of her grievances, it appears that the said representation submitted by the petitioner has not been decided by the Rajasthan Public service Commission and the same is still lying pending for adjudication on its merits and considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to dispose of the instant writ petition by issuing directions to the Rajasthan Public Service Commission to decide the petitioner’s representation pending, if any, expeditiously, preferably within a period of one week from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order by passing a reasoned and speaking order.

4. In case, the grievance of the petitioner is found to be genuine and in case, the petitioner has secured more than the cutoff marks for her category, the respondents shall allow the petitioner to participate in the further selection process.

5. With the aforesaid observations, the instant writ petition stands disposed of. The stay application and all pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
