1. Although, petitioner has challenged order dated 29.09.2026 issued by respondent No.5, whereby recovery is sought to be effected against the petitioner, however, during course of arguments, it was disclosed by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner has also approached Rajasthan State Cooperative Tribunal, yet on account of incomplete quorum on the relevant dates, his appeal along with stay application filed by the petitioner could not be decided.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that after filing of the appeal before Tribunal, at the one hand Tribunal is not granting hearing to the petitioner on stay application, and on the other hand, notice dated 29.09.2026 has been issued for enforcing recovery against the petitioner.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent-department informed this Court that although, constitution of Tribunal is proper, yet on account of certain personal reasons, on relevant dates either the member, or chairman of the Tribunal was not present, however, the next date in the matter is 04.11.2026.

4. In view of above, this Court deems it just and proper to dispose of this writ petition with directions to Rajasthan State Cooperative Tribunal, Jaipur to decide the stay application filed by the petitioner along with his appeal on the next date of hearing i.e. on 04.11.2026 and if for any reasons, the stay application is not heard on the next date, then day to day hearing shall be conducted for the purpose of deciding the stay application.
