Court No. - 80

HON'BLE CHAWAN PRAKASH, J.

1. Heard Sri Ashish Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for the applicant, Ved Prakash Pandey, learned counsel for opposite party No.2, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. The present application under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to quash the charge sheet dated, summoning order dated 10.10.2023 & 06.12.2023 and the entire proceeding of Case No. 11576 of 23, arising out of Case Crime No. 0372 of 2023, under Sections 498-A, 323, 504 LP.C., Police Station-Muradnagar, District-Ghaziabad, pending in the Court of Additional Civil Judge, (S.D.), Court No.-4, District-Ghaziabad.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant and opposite party no. 2 have entered into a compromise and they have amicably settled their dispute outside the court and no dispute is pending between them, therefore, do not want to get adjudication of alleged criminal act and prayed that the aforesaid criminal case may be quashed. He further submits that the applicant shall file compromise deed before the learned trial court for verification.

4. Learned A.G.A. for the State as well as learned counsel for opposite party No.2 do not dispute the authenticity of the submission made by learned counsel for the applicant or the authenticity of the documents relied upon by him. They submit that opposite party no. 2 have no objection, if the parties approach trial court to file compromise deed in the given circumstances.

5. Whether the parties have entered into compromise, can best be adjudicated by the trial court. As such, the parties may appear before the trial court and file a fresh compromise deed entered into between the parties within 30 days, which shall be verified by the trial court. The trial court shall place the original compromise deed in its record.

6. No compromise shall be entertained by the trial court if the informant/victim and accused are not signatories and appear before the court of its verification. In case of exigency, the trial court shall apply its mind and pass appropriate order.

7. For a period of two months, the proceedings of the trial court shall be kept in abeyance, if the compromise is filed and verified within stipulated period, otherwise, the trial court shall continue with the trial in accordance with law.

8. All the parties, who files compromise deed and get it verified shall then file a application invoking inherent power of this Court to quash the criminal proceeding.

9. In view of above, the application under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. is accordingly disposed of.
