HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT ALLAHABAD

FIRST APPEAL FROM ORDER DEFECTIVE No. - 708 of 2024

Suman Devi And 5 Others

.....Appellant(s)

Versus

Shree Maruti Parshuram Yadav And 2 Others

.....Respondent(s)

Counsel for Appellant(s)	:	Ramesh Chandra Pathak
Counsel for Respondent(s)	:	Aditya Singh Parihar

Court No. - 54

HON'BLE ANIL KUMAR-X, J.

1. Learned counsel for the parties appeared and submitted that the case may be decided on the basis of the compromise arrived at between the parties. The compromise deed was submitted, and both parties expressed their consent to the terms of the compromise deed.

2. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record. It is apparent that F.A.F.O.D. No. 708 of 2024 has been filed along with an application for condonation of delay. The delay has not been condoned till date, and no regular number has been allotted by the office. However, considering the fact that the parties have entered into a compromise and the case does not require any adjudication on merits, there is no legal impediment to deciding the case at this stage, even though the delay has not been condoned, on the basis of the compromise.

3. The memo of compromise filed today by learned counsel for the appellant is taken on record.

4. Learned counsel for the parties jointly submit that the dispute between the parties has been amicably settled and they have entered into a compromise. The terms and conditions of the compromise have been reduced into writing and the compromise has been filed before this Court. The parties have agreed to abide by the terms of the said compromise.

5. It has further been submitted that, in terms of the compromise, the Insurance Company has agreed to pay a sum of Rs. 3,50,000/- (Rupees Three Lakhs Fifty Thousand only) to the appellants towards full and final settlement of their claim arising out of M.A.C.P. No. 15 of 2020.

6. In view of the compromise entered into between the parties and the statement made by learned counsel for the parties, the present appeal is decided in terms of the compromise. The same shall form part of the record and shall also be treated as part of this judgment. It is further directed that the Insurance Company shall pay a sum of Rs. 3,50,000/- (Rupees Three Lakhs Fifty Thousand only) to the appellants within a period of 60 days from today.

7. Accordingly, the present appeal stands disposed of in terms of the compromise entered into between the parties.
