Court No. - 68

HON'BLE KRISHAN PAHAL, J.

1. List has been revised. Supplementary affidavit filed by learned counsel for the applicant is taken on record.

2. Heard Sri S.F.A. Naqvi, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Zaheer Asghar, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri R.P. Patel, learned State Law Officer for the State and perused the material placed on record.

3. Applicant seeks bail in Case Crime No.185 of 2026, Under Sections 318(4), 338, 336(3), 340(2), 61(2)A of BNS, Police Station Lohamandi, District Agra, during the pendency of trial.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the applicant is absolutely innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. The allegations levelled against him are per se false. It is submitted that the applicant is stated to have been arrested from a car belonging to co-accused Atul Rathore, and the alleged recovery of a huge amount of debit cards, credit cards, cheque books, etc., along with a laptop, has been falsely foisted upon the applicant and other co-accused persons. There is nothing on record to suggest that the applicant defrauded any person by using the aforesaid documents or the recovered electronic equipment. Further, there is no material on record to indicate that the applicant caused any loss to the State Exchequer by committing fraud. The criminal history attributed to the applicant has been duly explained. The applicant is languishing in jail since 26.07.2026. He undertakes to cooperate with the trial and not to misuse the liberty of bail, if granted.

5. Learned State Law Officer has vehemently opposed the bail application but the submissions raised by the learned counsel for the applicant could not be disputed.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, the evidence on record, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, prima-facie the Court is of the view that the applicant has made out a case for bail. The bail application is allowed.

7. Let the applicant- Mohit Agarwal, be released on bail in the aforementioned case crime on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties to the satisfaction of the court concerned, subject to verification of sureties, with the conditions that he shall not tamper with evidence or intimidate witnesses and shall appear before the trial court as required.

8. Breach of any condition shall entail cancellation of bail. The observations herein shall not affect the trial on merits.
