3. At the very outset, learned A.G.A. states that notice has been served upon the first informant.

4. It is contended by learned counsel for the applicant that applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case and there is no allegation of rape in the FIR and there are allegations of sexual assault and outraging the modesty of the victim against the applicant. However, mother of the victim, in her statements recorded under Sections 180 and 183 BNSS has stated that applicant attempted to committed rape on the victim, however, medico-legal report of the victim does not support commission of rape on her as no internal or external injury has been found in her private parts. It is next submitted that there are material contradictions in the version of the FIR, statement of mother of the victim recorded under Sections 180 and 183 BNSS and that given before the doctor. It is also submitted that applicant, who has no criminal history, has been languishing in jail since 17.5.2026. It is lastly submitted that in case applicant is granted bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail and would cooperate in the trial proceedings.

5. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the applicant and submits that victim is a minor girl aged about five years and applicant is said to have committed rape on her as per statement of her mother.

6. There is no allegation of rape in the FIR and there are allegations of sexual assault and outraging the modesty of the victim against the applicant. However, mother of the victim, in her statements recorded under Sections 180 and 183 BNSS has stated that applicant attempted to committed rape on the victim, however, medico-legal report of the victim does not support commission of rape on her as no internal or external injury has been found in her private parts. There appears to be material contradictions in the version of the FIR, statement of mother of the victim recorded under Sections 180 and 183 BNSS and that given before the doctor. Applicant, who has no criminal history, has been languishing in jail since 17.5.2026.
