3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that however, applicant is named in the FIR along with several others and as per allegation named accused persons badly beaten the deceaed due to which he died but post mortem report suggests that deceased sustained injuries on his non vital part and he died due to cardio pulmonary arrest and, therefore, present case does not travel beyond Section 105 BNS.

4. He further submits that after considering entire facts in detail co-accused Ankush and Nitin Singh, who were also named in the FIR, have been released on bail by this Court vide order dated 3.9.2026 and their bail order has been annexed at page 149 of the paper book and the case of applicant is at par with them.

7. Per contra, learned AGA although opposed the prayer for bail but could not dispute the argument on facts advanced by the learned counsel for the applicant.

8. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record of the case.

9. However, applicant is named in the FIR along with others and according to the FIR, due to assault made by named accused deceased sutained injuries and died but considering the post mortem report of the deceased the argument advanced by the learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant and other accused persons were not having any intention to cause his death, cannot be completely ruled out at this stage.

10. Further, co-accused Ankush and Nitin Singh have been released on bail by this Court and the case of applicant is at par with them.

11. Further, applicant is not having any previous criminal history and in the present matter he is in jail since 6.1.2026, i.e., for the last nine months.
