Counsel for Applicant(s)	:	Piyush Tripathi
Counsel for Opposite Party(s)	:	G.A.

Court No. - 70

HON'BLE RAJIV LOCHAN SHUKLA, J.

1. Heard, Learned counsel for the applicant, the Learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. The present anticipatory bail application has been filed on behalf of the applicant in Case Crime No. 450 of 2025, under Sections 340(2), 336(3), 338, 318(4), 319(2) of BNS, Police Station- Robertsganj, District - Sonbhadra, with a prayer to enlarge her on anticipatory bail as the applicant apprehends her arrest in the above-mentioned case.

3. The Learned counsel for the applicant has contended that a false F.I.R. has been lodged against the applicant. The allegation is of the applicant supposedly portraying herself to be Rupa, daughter of Raj Kumar, taking Rs. 50,000/- from the informant in conspiracy with the other accused and performing a sham marriage when the applicant already is a married woman. The Learned counsel has further submitted that the applicant never performed any marriage with the brother of the informant. The allegations of taking money for performing marriage by the mediator are also false. Applicant has no criminal antecedents. The applicant is a lady, aged about 22 years.

4. The Learned A.G.A. has opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail and has submitted that the applicant and the co-accused cheated the informant. A sham marriage was performed. One of the accused, Pushpa, who is the sister-in-law (Bhabhi of the applicant) was arrested from the spot. The applicant belongs to a gang of criminals who cheat innocent people in the garb of performing marriage. She may not be considered for grant of anticipatory bail. Learned A.G.A. has further submitted that the charge sheet against the co-accused has already been filed. The applicant may also appear before the concerned Court and apply for regular bail.

6. I have considered the submissions made by the Learned counsel for the parties and perused the material brought on the record.

7. The police, as per the F.I.R. is already in possession of the alleged fake marriage certificate, fake Aadhar Card, supposedly belonging to the applicant. Applicant has no criminal antecedents. She is stated to be a young women aged about 22 years and she claims to be a housewife.

8. Taking into account all the facts and circumstances of the case, as also the lack of criminal antecedents of the applicant and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I deem it fit to enlarge the applicant on anticipatory bail.

9. In view of the above, the anticipatory bail application of the applicant is allowed.

10. In the event of the arrest of the applicant -Rubi, she shall be released forthwith in the aforesaid case crime on anticipatory bail on furnishing a personal bond and surety each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Station House Officer of the police station/Court concerned with the following conditions:-

i. the applicant shall make herself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;

ii. that the applicant shall not, directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

iii. that the applicant shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

iv. that the applicant shall not pressurize/intimidate the prosecution witness;

11. In case of breach of any of the above conditions, the Court concerned shall be at liberty to cancel the bail.

12. It is made clear that observations made hereinabove are exclusively for deciding the instant anticipatory bail application and are not to be considered to be an opinion on the merits of the case.
