Court No. - 68

HON'BLE KRISHAN PAHAL, J.

1. List has been revised. Affidavit filed by learned counsel for the informant is taken on record.

2. Heard Sri Ravindra Prakash Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Arvind Kumar Srivastava, Advocate holding brief of Sri Bhaju Ram Prasad, learned counsel for the informant, Sri R.P. Patel, learned State Law Officer for the State and perused the material placed on record.

3. Applicant seeks bail in Complaint Case No.221 of 2017, under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 504 & 506 I.P.C., Police Station Pathra Bazar, District Siddharth Nagar, during the pendency of trial.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the applicant is absolutely innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. The matter is civil in nature. The question of title may be decided in the civil proceedings, which are still pending. In the instant case, an application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. was filed by the informant, and the case was treated as a complaint case. The applicant was summoned vide order dated 02.07.2019. The criminal history assigned to the applicant stands explained. He is in jail since 08.09.2026 and undertakes to cooperate with the trial and not misuse the liberty of bail.

5. Learned counsel for the informant and learned State Law Officer have vehemently opposed the bail application but the submissions raised by the learned counsel for the applicant could not be disputed.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, the evidence on record, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, prima-facie the Court is of the view that the applicant has made out a case for bail. The bail application is allowed.

7. Let the applicant- Subash Chandra, be released on bail in the aforementioned complaint case on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties to the satisfaction of the court concerned, subject to verification of sureties, with the conditions that he shall not tamper with evidence or intimidate witnesses and shall appear before the trial court as required.

8. Breach of any condition shall entail cancellation of bail. The observations herein shall not affect the trial on merits.
