HON'BLE SANJAY KUMAR PACHORI, J.

Ms. Farzana Jamal, learned counsel for the applicants and Sri Alok Mishra, learned A.G.A. for the State are present.

The present application under Section 528 of Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 has been filed to quash the order dated 01.04.2026 passed in Session Trial No. 1540 of 2025 arising out of Criminal Case No. 331 of 2024, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323/149, 352, 427, 452, 504, 506, 302/149, 308/149 of I.P.C., Police Station Rasra, District Ballia, whereby non-bailable warrant has been issued against the applicants as well as entire proceedings of the aforesaid case, pending in the court of Sessions Judge, Ballia.

Learned counsel for the applicants does not want to press the relief of quashing the proceedings of Session Trial, hence, this relief is dismissed as not pressed.

So far as concerned with regard to order dated 01.04.2026, learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant was on bail at the time of issuing of Non-Bailable Warrant. It is further submitted that the impugned order has been passed without satisfying itself that the summon and other process for attendance has been served. It is further submitted that the impugned order has been passed without considering the position of law. It is settled position of law that N.B.W. should be issued as a last resort after the litigant fails to respond the notices/summons and bailable warrant. It is further submitted that non-bailable warrant has been issued without issuing any summon and bailable warrant.

Learned A.G.A. has opposed the application.

Considering submissions of learned counsel and perusing record, the instant application under Section 528 of Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 is finally disposed of with a direction that in case applicant appears before the court below within three weeks from today and applies for bail/recall of non bailable warrant, his application shall be decided in the light of the observations made in the judgments rendered by the Supreme Court in Satender Kumar Antil Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation & Another, (2021) 10 SCC 773, Siddharth Vs. The State of Uttar Pradesh & Another 2022 (11) SCC 676 and Aman Preet Singh Vs. C.B.I. through Director 2021 SCC Online SC 941.

For a period of three weeks from today or till applicant appears before the court below, whichever is earlier, execution of non bailable warrant against applicant shall be kept in abeyance.
