CRIMINAL MISC. BAIL APPLICATION No. - 37778 of 2026

Vikas

.....Applicant(s)

Versus

State of U.P.

.....Opposite Party(s)

Counsel for Applicant(s)	:	Ansar Ahmad
Counsel for Opposite Party(s)	:	G.A.

Court No. - 68

HON'BLE KRISHAN PAHAL, J.

1. List has been revised.

2. Heard Mohd. Akram, Advocate holding brief of Sri Ansar Ahmad, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Rajendra Prasad Singh, learned State Law Officer and also perused the material placed on record.

3. Applicant seeks bail in Case Crime No. 722 of 2026, under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 109(1), 125, 352, 333, 324(4), 131, 351(3) of BNS, Police Station - Banna Devi, District - Aligarh, during the pendency of trial.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant contends that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is submitted that the prosecution case rests on general and omnibus allegations levelled against all the accused persons collectively, and no specific role or particular overt act has been assigned to the applicant or any other individual. It is further argued that the present criminal proceedings have been engineered due to an ongoing civil suit between the parties. Furthermore, the FIR suffers from an unexplained delay, as it fails to mention the specific time of the alleged offence, which is stated to have been committed on 22.09.2026. It is next submitted that the applicant has clean antecedents with no prior criminal history and has been languishing in jail since 24.09.2026.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties, the nature of the offence, the severity of the punishment, and also considering the general and omnibus nature of the allegations, the underlying civil dispute between the parties, the lack of specific details regarding the time of the alleged occurrence in the FIR, alongside the applicant's clean criminal antecedents, this Court prima facie finds it a fit case to release the applicant on bail.

6. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed. Let the applicant- Vikas, be released on bail on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties to the satisfaction of the court concerned, subject to verification of sureties, with the conditions that he shall not tamper with evidence or intimidate witnesses and shall appear before the trial court as required.

7. Breach of any condition shall entail cancellation of bail. The observations herein shall not affect the trial on merits.
