Counsel for Opposite Party(s) :

Court No. - 7

HON'BLE PIYUSH AGRAWAL, J.

Heard learned counsel for the applicant(s).

Vide order dated 17.02.2026 passed in Writ A No. 64806/2013 filed by the applicant(s), the writ Court directed as under:

"In view of the aforesaid, a writ of mandamus is issued to the respondents to consider the claim of the petitioner for regularization of his services in accordance with U.P. Regularization of Daily Wages Appointments on Group 'D' Rules, 2001 read with Government Order dated 13.8.2015 within a period of two months from the date of production of a certified copy of this order. If the petitioner has already retired from the post held by him, then the petitioner's claim for regularization on notional basis would be considered by the respondents as the claim of the petitioner has been incorrectly delayed by the respondents by not considering within time. "

Learned counsel for the applicant(s) submits that a certified copy of the aforesaid order was submitted for compliance before the opposite party(s) on 12.03.2026, but the opposite party(s) has willfully not complied with the order and, thus, has committed civil contempt liable for punishment under Section 12 of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971.

Prima facie, a case of contempt has been made out for punishing the opposite party(s) for willful disobedience of the writ Court order.

However, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, one more opportunity is accorded to the opposite party(s) to comply with the aforesaid order of the writ Court in its letter and spirit within two months from the date of production of a copy of this order.

The applicant(s) shall supply a duly stamped registered envelope addressed to the opposite party(s) and another self-addressed stamped envelope to the office within one week from today. The office shall send a copy of this order along with the self-addressed envelope of the applicant(s) with a copy of contempt application to the opposite party(s) within one week thereafter and keep a record thereof.

The opposite party(s) shall comply with the directions of the writ Court and intimate the applicant(s) of the order through the self-addressed envelop within a week thereafter.

With the aforesaid observations, this application is disposed of at this stage with liberty to the applicant(s) to move a fresh application, if the order is not complied with by the opposite party(s) within the stipulated time as aforementioned.
