HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT ALLAHABAD

CRIMINAL MISC. BAIL APPLICATION No. - 38569 of 2026

Veerpal Singh

.....Applicant(s)

Versus

State of U.P.

.....Opposite Party(s)

Counsel for Applicant(s)	:	M.P.S. Chauhan
Counsel for Opposite Party(s)	:	G.A.

Court No. - 68

HON'BLE KRISHAN PAHAL, J.

1. List has been revised.

2. Heard Sri M.P.S. Chauhan, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Deepak Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State and also perused the material placed on record.

3. Applicant seeks bail in Case Crime No. 88 of 2026, under Sections 109(1), 118(2), 131, 351(2), 352 of BNS, Police Station - Godha, District - Aligarh, during the pendency of trial.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant contends that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is submitted that the allegations are per se false. While it is acknowledged that the injuries sustained by the victim are grievous in nature, being bone-deep, they were not inflicted on any vital part of the body. Furthermore, although the victim received forty stitches, the mere fact of receiving stitches does not conclusively establish an intent to cause death or satisfy the ingredients of a more severe offence. Crucially, the statement of the injured person was recorded after an inordinate delay of 28 days from the date of the incident, for which no explanation has been given. The applicant has no prior criminal history and has been incarcerated since 21.07.2026.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties, the nature of the offence, the severity of the punishment, and also considering the fact that the injuries were not caused on vital parts of the body, alongside the unexplained delay of 28 days in recording the statement of the injured witness, coupled with the applicant's clean antecedents and the period of incarceration already undergone, this Court prima facie finds it a fit case to release the applicant on bail.

6. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed. Let the applicant- Veerpal Singh, be released on bail on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties to the satisfaction of the court concerned, subject to verification of sureties, with the conditions that he shall not tamper with evidence or intimidate witnesses and shall appear before the trial court as required.

7. Breach of any condition shall entail cancellation of bail. The observations herein shall not affect the trial on merits.
