Court No. - 68

HON'BLE KRISHAN PAHAL, J.

1. List has been revised. Supplementary affidavit filed today is taken on record.

2. Heard Sri Ashutosh Kumar Pandey, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri A.K. Mishra, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the material placed on record.

3. Applicant seeks bail in Case Crime No.75 of 2026, under Sections 336(3), 340(2), 352, 351(3), 318(4) and 338 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, Police Station Dheena, District Chandauli, during the pendency of trial.

4. As per prosecution story, the applicant is stated to have impersonated and got the property belonging to the informant transferred in his name.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the applicant is absolutely innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. He used to reside at the same place, and the transfer, if any, was executed inadvertently. He is ready to return the requisite property to the informant. The applicant has no criminal history and has been in jail since 22.09.2026. He undertakes to cooperate with the trial and not to misuse the liberty of bail.

6. Learned A.G.A. has vehemently opposed the bail application, but the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the applicant could not be disputed.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties and the evidence on record, taking into consideration the fact that the applicant is ready to return the requisite property to the informant, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, prima facie, the Court is of the view that the applicant has made out a case for bail. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.

8. Let the applicant- Dilip Kumar Rajbhar, be released on bail in the aforementioned case crime on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties to the satisfaction of the court concerned, subject to verification of sureties, with the conditions that he shall not tamper with evidence or intimidate witnesses and shall appear before the trial court as required.

9. Breach of any condition shall entail cancellation of bail. The observations herein shall not affect the trial on merits.
