.....Opposite Party(s)

Counsel for Applicant(s)	:	Hemant Kumar
Counsel for Opposite Party(s)	:	G.A.

Court No. - 76

HON'BLE SAURABH SRIVASTAVA, J.

1. On the request of learned counsel for applicants, this matter is being taken up out of turn considering the urgency. Heard learned counsel for parties.

2. The instant petition has been preferred with prayer to quash charge sheet dated 29.05.2025 and cognizance/summoning order dated 09.06.2025 along with entire proceeding of Case no.16685 of 2025, (State vs. Ankit and others), arising out of Case Crime no.41 of 2025, under Sections 498-A, 323, 506 IPC, read with Section 3/4 D.P. Act, P.S. Mahila Thana, District Muzaffarnagar, pending in court of learned court of Civil Judge (Junior Division), FTC-1, Muzaffarnagar.

3. Learned counsel for applicants submits that on the request of applicants, the matter was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court and by the efforts of mediators, the mediation has been successful and it has been stipulated by the parties that they will withdraw all the pending cases filed against each other including the case connected with the instant petition and all the disputes have been settled in terms of the agreement.

4. It is also stipulated that the case filed by either parties against each other, shall be deemed to have been decided in the light of present settlement. The parties are not having any further claims or demands against each other and all the disputes and differences in this regard, have been amicably settled by the parties.

5. Highlighting the report of Mediation Centre which has been placed on record, it is submitted that proceedings of the instant case pending before learned concerned court, shall also be quashed.

6. Learned counsel for opposite parties did not dispute the fact that mediation has been successful.

7. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the record, it is evident that with regard to the above mentioned case pending before learned court concerned in shape of Case Crime no.41 of 2025, the instant application was moved by the applicants. However, the matter was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court and the efforts of the mediator has resulted in amicable settlement between the parties. A settlement has been placed before this Court by the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, Allahabad High Court (appended to the order sheet) wherein the terms and conditions of the settlement has been enumerated and it is categorically stated that the parties have settled the dispute and they do not want to prosecute each other and thus the prayer has been made by learned counsel for the applicants to quash the proceedings pending before learned court concerned.

8. Since the mediation has been successful and report has been sent along with original settlement executed between the parties, thus in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab reported in (2012)10 SCC 303, Shiji and others Vs. Radhika and others Manu/ SC/1341/2011, Manoj Sharma Vs. State of U.P. (2008)16 SCC1, charge sheet dated 29.05.2025 and cognizance/summoning order dated 09.06.2025 along with entire proceeding of Case no.16685 of 2025, (State vs. Ankit and others), arising out of Case Crime no.41 of 2025, under Sections 498-A, 323, 506 IPC, read with Section 3/4 D.P. Act, P.S. Mahila Thana, District Muzaffarnagar, pending in court of learned court of Civil Judge (Junior Division), FTC-1, Muzaffarnagar, are hereby quashed and set aside, only in respect of applicants herein.

9. The settlement report of the Medication and Conciliation Centre shall be part and parcel of this order.

10. Accordingly, the application filed by the applicant under Section 528 BNSS is finally disposed of.
